

Penn Mutual Florida Region

Providing Solutions. Exceeding Expectations.

Mike Siebecker
Regional Annuity Specialist

Mike Siebecker is the Regional Annuity Specialist for the state of Florida. He plays a key role by providing financial services professionals with product and case support in the areas of variable and fixed annuities.

Mike joined Penn Mutual in 2007 with 13 years of sales management and senior sales experience with large multinational companies in the financial services industry. Prior to joining Penn Mutual, Mike was affiliated with SunTrust Investment Services, Inc. as an investment consultant. His success in that position earned him a promotion to assistant vice president. Mike's career has also included his role as a financial advisor and registered representative for AXA/Equitable and senior sales trader and vice president for Prudential Bache Global Markets: Foreign Exchange.

Mike graduated from St. John's University in Jamaica, New York, with a bachelor's degree in economics and communications. In his spare time, he enjoys playing golf or tennis and coaching a Little League travel team.
